

Luca Barbieri, since 1999 he has been the owner of the architecture and design studio Barbieri & Blacks based in Milan, has developed a qualified and multiannual of professionalism and experience on design issues at different scales with particular sensitivity for eco-sustainable design, the definition of urban public spaces, the protection and enhancement of the historical and artistic heritage.

Over the years he has been involved in the drafting and management of complex recovery plans and real estate development in different areas of the city of Milan and, in the whole of professional activity, with both public and private assignments, has developed and carried out projects in different building sectors.